How to make a Data Subject Rights Request

To make a Data Subject Rights Request, please complete all sections of the attached form and return it to us at:

FREEPOST CBS CUSTOMER SERVICES

It's important that you write all of the address in uppercase as above. You don't need to use a stamp. Royal Mail delivers Freepost as Second Class mail.

Alternatively, please visit any of our branches.

You can find further information online by reading our Privacy Notice at www.coventrybuildingsociety.co.uk/privacy

How to complete your form

Please complete all sections of the Data Subject Rights Request form, providing as much information as possible. It's important that all Data Subject Rights Request applicants sign the form before you return it to us. We won't be able to start processing your request until we have the details of your enquiry and your signature as authority to process your request.

Your details

Please give us your full details and those of any joint account holders (if applicable). If your address has changed since you opened an account with us, let us have your previous address. If your request relates to a joint account, we'll send you any correspondence in one pack, unless you tell us otherwise. It's important that all account holders sign the form.

It's also important that you provide us with a daytime contact number in case we have any questions about your request.

If you are making the Data Subject Rights Request on behalf of someone else

If you're making a request on behalf of someone else, perhaps because you have power of attorney on their behalf or if they are a minor, you must provide evidence that you have a legal right to the information.

Please enclose a copy of your power of attorney, or a letter of authority signed by the person who you are representing, with your completed form. Make sure that you provide your details, and those of the person whose information you are representing, on the form.

Your account details

Please provide as much information as possible about any accounts you currently hold, or have held with us. This will enable us to respond to your request.

Tell us what you want or want us to do

Please let us know what information you would like. If you have a specific enquiry, for example, you want a copy of a particular letter or record of a telephone conversation, please contact us on 02475 184660 as we may be able to answer your request without the need for a full Data Subject Rights Request.

How much does a Data Subject Rights Request cost?

We provide access to your own personal data free of charge. However if your request is manifestly unfounded, excessive or repetitive we may charge you a reasonable fee which will cover the administrative cost of providing the information. We may also charge a fee for further copies of the same information. We'll tell you if we need to do this.

No charge is made for any other Data Subject Rights Request.

How long will it take to process my request?

The length of time it takes to reply will depend on what you want us to do and the complexity of your request. However, we have a responsibility to respond to a Data Subject Rights Request within one month of us receiving your completed request, as long as we have been able to validate who you are. We can extend that by a further two months if your request is complex but if we need to do this we'll let you know within one month.

If we can't process your request for any reason we'll respond to you telling you why within one month of receiving your request.

What other information will you need from me?

There may be occasions when we need more information about your request. If this happens we will contact you in writing or call you on the contact number you have given.

In exceptional circumstances, we may also have to ask you to provide additional documentation to confirm your identity (for example a certified copy of your driving licence or passport). If this is the case, we'll contact you to let you know what we need.

Our team is available Monday-Friday 9am-5pm. As call costs may vary, please contact your service provider for details of charges.
