

UNDER EMBARGO UNTIL 6 OCTOBER

Coventry Building Society launches Double Access Saver (Online) (4)

- The new account will pay a highly competitive rate of 0.96% AER annually
- This replaces Double Access Saver (Online) (3) which will close to new applications today
- Savers can access their money twice a year with no charge

Coventry Building Society is launching Double Access Saver (Online) (4) on 6 October which pays 0.96% AER/Gross p.a. for annual interest or monthly interest

The Double Access Saver (Online) (4) allows two withdrawals a year (a year starting from the date the account was opened). Any further withdrawals in that year will incur a charge of 50 days' interest on the amount withdrawn. The account must be opened and managed online via www.coventrybuildingsociety.co.uk.

Daniel McDonald, Senior Savings Product Manager at Coventry Building Society, said: "Our Double Access offering continues to be extremely popular. We understand that it's a fast-moving market for savers right now and we remain committed to providing good long term value.

"Savers who don't want to be locked into a fixed term, but aren't expecting to need to access their money more than twice a year can benefit from a good return on their money."

Coventry Building Society is closing Double Access Saver (Online) (3) due to continued unprecedented demand. Savers who have already opened this account will still benefit from the rate of 1.05% AER annually, however this account will no longer be open for applications after 5 October. If customers have applied for Double Access Saver (Online) (3) they must complete their application by 19 October.
