Coventry Building Society to increase variable savings rates

Coventry Building Society has today announced it will increase the rates on most of its variable savings accounts and members will benefit from 1st June 2022.

The UK's second largest building society has more than two million members and will publish the rate changes on its website next week.

Matthew Carter, Head of Savings at Coventry Building Society, said: "We consistently pay the best rates we can afford which means our members will continue to enjoy competitive rates on their savings."
